"...for me this is no doubt the best album Back to Basic has ever released. And that's saying a lot.."

After their first two albums "Give All You Got" and "No Mumbo Jumbo", Back to Basic proudly presents album number three aptly titled "Not Over Yet".

"Not Over Yet" contains nine powerful tracks but for now "One Word" and "I Don't Care About You" have received most 'likes' from our fans.

The unique husky voice of Theo Braams gives "Not Over Yet" the finishing touch and defines the band's vibe. Like its predecessors, "Not Over Yet" has the nostalgic Back to Basic blue-eyed soul sound.

It goes without saying that with "Not Over Yet" the sound of Back to Basic has evolved , but the feel and the ambiance of "Leave Me Alone", the band's breakthrough single, is still clearly present.

Back to Basic consists of eight musicians who've earned their spurs and who've been involved in live performances and recordings by artists such as Joe Cocker, Rodger Hodgson (Supertramp), Ilse DeLange, Anouk, Thé Lau, Barry Hay and George Kooijmans, the Eurovision Song Contest & Boudewijn de Groot, to name a few.

The band's musical style can best be described as funky and soulful with an edge. Back to Basic are compared with similar artists like Tower of Power & Blood Sweat & Tears.
